

Hedy Sandra Taylor

December 29, 1941 - March 9, 2024

Only once in our lifetime does God bestow upon us a very precious and irreplaceable gift, our Mother.

There are so many blessings intertwined in this priceless treasure, nurturer, friend, protector, cook, secret keeper, encourager, fashion coordinator, the glue that holds the family together and so much more.

Hedy Sandra Taylor was the only child born to Nathaniel and Eula Smith on December 29, 1941. She was born and raised in Washington, D.C., and she was enrolled in the D.C. public schools.

While attending Cardozo High School, she met and befriended a fellow student name Henry Taylor whom she eventually married. This faithful and loving union lasted close to 56 years until God called Henry home in 2015.

This matrimony produced four children: Dorian Taylor, Bridgett Taylor, Sybil Taylor and Shawna Taylor. She also was the doting grandmother of Darlene Moore.

Hedy was a housewife who loved on her family and strongly encouraged them to love on God. Brimming with the demeanor of sweetness and generosity, Hedy often welcomed family and friends, not just in her home but also in her heart.

Thank you, dear God, for granting us the great pleasure of sparkling our lives with such a beautiful and rare jewel, Hedy Sandra Taylor.
