“ To Kendra and the Family of Helen McCoy: May the love of God move even more deeply in your lives and continue to comfort and guide you as you celebrate the gift of your mother and friend, as portrayed through her punctuating presence and precious memories of her impact on those around her in sustainable and meaningful ways! She was a rare jewel of a person in her gifts and talents. We thank the Lord for her contributions to our church and our lives in a number of special ways. Remember to "trust in the Lord with all your heart" as you experience this difficult paths of your journey of life. May Helen rest in peace in God's will and you continue to "run the race set before you" as the Lord keeps guiding you in His own divine way! Blessings to each of you in the matchless name of Jesus!
