*We have known Helen almost 50 years and had kept up intermittent contact. We reunited last year around the Capital Hill 7th day Adventist Church. We expected her to join the church but we lost contact once again. George Curry from Atlanta informed us of her passing. We met her in the early 1970's. She seemed evasive at some points but she remained a faithful beloved friend. We sorrow at her passing but look forward to the day when God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes!

“ *Extending heartfelt sympathy to the family of Helen Morse. She was a wonderful person whom I met while at Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist Church. She had a wonderful smile and I remember that she would sometimes give my daughter, Chrystal, and I a ride home from church so that we would not have to take the bus. RIP Helen.

“ Just remembering how when I was 12 years old and had made the honor roll since 1st grade! My grandmother Frances Boyd and I were the hallway at PABC Ms. Helen said , if you keep it up in will pay for you to go to any Ivy League University you chose! Such a sweet spirit. Condolences to the family. I LOVE YOU NATALIE!

“ I am sorry for your loss. Helen was an elegant woman. She was a good person. Helen had a good work ethic. She was one of the fastest workers at a summer work camp for girls in Connecticut during her high school years. She is featured in my graduate school dissertation. May her soul rest in peace.

“ To the Family of Sister Helen Morse

We pray God's blessings on you as you begin a new journey without your loved one Sister Helen. We will always remember the Morse family for the love that they shared with us when we first met and the love we still share for and with the family. We know that God has picked a beautiful flower and has placed her in His garden to watch over until He comes to claim all of His children. We know that He said in His word, that "He would never leave nor forsake us" and in this promise alone we are assured that He is comforting and wrapping His arms around you and drying each of your tears. Know that we love you and will continue to pray for you,

We are praying for the family strength and I will surely miss seeing my cousin in church. We had plenty laughs and talks together. She was my lady in hats, and lipstick lady. Love from Pudding. Butler daughter.
