

Mr. Henry McDonald Wagstaff

February 5, 1936 - July 6, 2021

Henry Wagstaff, affectionately called "Wag" "Mac" or "Diddee" was born in Leasburg, North Carolina on February 5, 1936 where he was also raised and educated. He was the oldest of 4 children born to the late Hallie Wagstaff Dixon. He leaves behind his siblings, Queen Dixon, Josiah Douglas Dixon and Sandra Vaughn all of Leasburg, North Carolina.

Henry met and married Ernestine Goodwin of Washington DC on December 9, 1965 until his unexpectant passing on July 6, 2021. He was the father of 3, James Henry McGee of North Carolina, Shelia Elizabeth Wagstaff of Maryland and the late Richardo David Wagstaff. He is the grandfather of Rahshad Lamar Cobb of Temple Hills, Maryland.

Henry was a Pastry Chef at the Pentagon building in Arlington, Virginia and worked for Aramark for over 50 years. He was a quiet man who loved to be at home with his family and enjoyed watching baseball, football, playing video games, eating good food and classic cars. He never hung out other than with his family and relatives and worked everyday until his retirement in 2001. Henry loved children and children always gravitated to him. He was especially close to his grandson Rahshad who was born the year after his own son passed away.

Henry was a quiet and God loving man but he fought hard for his family and his life, living 20 longer than people said that he would. He always told his family he loved them.
