

Hugh R. E. Blackman

October 2, 1939 - December 18, 2015

Hugh R. E. Blackman passed away peacefully on the morning of Friday, December 18, 2015, in Fort Washington, Maryland, at the age 76. Hugh, who migrated to the Washington Metropolitan area from Trinidad and Tobago, in 1979, is survived by his beloved wife of fifty years, Josiane Blackman (née Beauregard); his daughters, Christiane Blackman Steward (Sam), Caroline Blackman (David Porter), and Olivia Lewis (Elwood); his granddaughters, Chloe Steward and Sophia Lewis, and step-grandson, Lake Porter; his sisters, Winifred Bertrand, and Shirley Ann Blackman; his sisters-in-law, Arlene Blackman and Monique Weiler (Jacques); his thirteen nieces and nephews, and eight great-nieces and nephews, whom he adored. He was preceded in death by his parents, Fitzgerald and Gertrude Blackman; his siblings, Dorothy Blackman, Ruth Sengat-Kuo, and Kenneth Blackman; his brothers-in-law, Orlando S. Bertrand, Jr., François Sengat-Kuo, and Jean Beauregard (Gilberte); and his cherished nephews, Patrick Sengat-Kuo and Jean-Marc Beauregard.

*Due to the blizzard, the memorial service has been rescheduled and will be held at 12:30 p.m., on Sunday, February 28, 2016, at Foundry United Methodist Church, located at 1500 16th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20036. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations be made to the Social Justice and Building Ministries of Foundry UMC.

“ As a choir member recessing at the end of a service, it was always so wonderful to see Hugh's happy face as he greeted all the choir and showed his appreciation for the music that morning. I have greatly missed that warm, smiling face!
