“ When someone departs from you, it’s always a very hurtful loss. To not be able to talk with Inga, is unimaginable! My lil sister has always been in the center of my life. As a child, she was always with her big sister Joan. I had 3 younger sisters and they were all my heartbeat, but Inga was such a different person. I taught her how to sew, and she enlarged her sewing skills far beyond mine. I made outfits for her and she’d cherish them! She was like a daughter. At 15, she informed me of my mother’s illness just by observing something that was strange. I’m telling you, Inga was and will always be, one of a kind.

My, my, I offer to her loving daughters, her grands, great grand, my sisters Marian, Paula, my son Kamau, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, my sincerest condolences and prayers for strength and endurance during this very difficult time. Rest In Peace and know that I will always love you, and will never forget you.
Lovingly, Joan

I will never forgive myself for leaving out my sister’s, Inga Hagan) husband Kenny out of my previous posting! Kenny was Inga’s second heartbeat and her shadow! I pray for strength and heavenly endurance for you, brother-n-Law. Know that Inga will always be there at your side just as she was in life! I send my heartfelt love and support to you! Stay safe! 🙏❤️
