

Mrs. Ingrid Mykoo Houwen

April 12, 1941 - January 16, 2022

Ingrid Mykoo Houwen, affectionately known as Houwen, was born on April 12, 1941, to Joseph Mykoo and Amelia Mykoo in Suriname, South America. She was raised in Trinidad & Tobago and later relocated to New York City. While receiving her education in the city, she met Morel Lee Houwen. They were joined in holy matrimony on May 23, 1965, and out of their union came their daughter, Morella. In 1965, the couple moved to Washington D.C. to start a new life together. She started her career as a Medical Technologist working at Soldiers Home, DC General Hospital, the Bureau of Labs, and Hadley Memorial Hospital. Ingrid retired with the DC Government in 1987 and Hadley Memorial Hospital in 2011.

Ingrid loved to stay busy with different activities like crocheting and gardening. She also loved watching Steve Harvey on Family Feud regularly. She enjoyed making eggrolls and her specialty dish, chicken and rice, a recipe she kept close to her heart. Ingrid was also a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan. Ingrid is survived by her daughter Morella, her granddaughter Chelsey, and her great-grandson Wyatt. She also leaves to cherish her memory her three godsons Lil Mike, Marcus, and Anthony, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives. Ingrid was greatly loved and will be missed by many.

Sending my condolences and prayers to the family of Ingrid Houwen. She was a great friend and a beautiful person. She called to check to see how I was doing at least monthly. We mostly played phone tag but when we did connect we had long fulfilling and fun conversations. I will miss her greatly. May the love of God bless the family richly and hold on to her memories.

Morella and chelsey our hearts are heavy with grief but full of love for our beloved sister. She brought so much love and joy to the this family. My brother chose wisely when he chose her as his bride. She loved him so much. We will remember how much she loved the lord and her family. The three of you were the joy of her life. Remember the good times and everything she gave you over the years. I /we will never forget her. You are our family and we love you. We pray God's blessings on you. Love always.
