“ My Family and I would like to express our gratitude regarding Mr James Anderson. We deeply appreciate how Mr and Mrs Anderson helped our Family. Mr Anderson taught us examples of life (especially with his career experiences) and how to survive in this cruel and wicked world. However, he was indeed a great role model in loving, protecting and providing for his Family! There are many Black male role models who are unfortunately not given their due respect. Mr Anderson is definitely a gentleman of integrity!!!

“ Daddy Anderson I will never forget you. I remember in the days of raising my two Sons you would always praise me and let me know that I was doing a great job, how you took Dominic under your wing and taught him how to be a responsible young man, you taught him the importance of making his own money and to this day I say thank you from the bottom of my heart. Daddy Anderson you gave me one of your Greatest gift and that was meeting my best friend Cooky and I am forever grateful. Thank you for always keeping me in church if a couple of Sunday go by and I didn't show up you best Believe that Mrs Anderson was ringing my phone Janet you wasn't in church today. Thank you Thank you. Love Janet

“ To my beloved Uncle. I will never for the many memories that we shared and the time that we spent together. I remember when there was a blackout at your house and I came over you, Cooky, and I played monopoly until it got dark you were having so much fun that when it got dark you went and got the flashlights and we played until the batteries died ... I remember when I was having Eryn you came to the hospital early in the morning and stayed all day until I had her ... you are one special Uncle that I will never forget and I will truly miss you love you favorite niece Quiana

“ I remember Mr. Anderson as the neighborhood father. He would remind us of when it was time to go home. One memory I have is him coming into the living room or Gayle’s room, sniffing the air, asking what was that smell and telling us we all needed Mum (a popular deodorant of the time).

“ I remember when visiting Uncle James and Aunt Wilma, I would fall asleep in the reclining chair in a corner of their living room. They would sit there patiently until I woke up. Well, one day, Uncle James and Aunt Wilma gave me that chair. I maneuvered and drug that chair to my car, crammed it into the trunk, and happily drove it home to enjoy. I will always love him and the family, "my family", and pray God's continued blessings be upon them.
