“ I would like to give my deepest sympathies to the family of James Andrews. I understand that this is a difficult time, but I would like to leave you with some words of comfort. These words are found at Acts 24:15. It says " And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection...". Here we see that God promise that one day soon he is going to reunite us with those we have loss in death. But until that time, know that God understands the loss you are feeling and he is here to provide needed comfort. (2 Corinthians 1: 3,4)
