Daddy, while I'd rather have you here with me, I know you are resting now in peace. It's hard to accept that you have passed away. So I will instead believe you are simply gone on ahead to light the way. I will forever cherish the dear memories of you that I hold. And delight in the ones your family and friends have told. There are no words that fully describe our journey together or our journey apart. Till we meet again, you will forever hold a special place in my heart. I love you. Acts 27:23
