“ I miss you already, your unique voice, humor and southern style,
Your old school right way to do things but I pray to see you afterwhile,
For God remembers kindness better than anyone,
I believe He will remember yours in getting the job done,
Not because you had to, you often made that clear,
But because of your respect for me from your heart that was sincere.
So my Buddy Boone, I'll continue to pray for all those that are a part of you,
For grace and abundant mercy we all need to make it through.
