

Mr. James Edward Drummond

August 27, 1962 - January 21, 2021

James Edward Drummond was preceded in death by his loving parents, Roscoe Howard and Dorothy Mae Drummond, and two siblings, Darlene A. Bland and Rodney Q. Drummond.

As a young child to adult hood James gained his spiritual knowledge while attending Holy Cross P.S. Church in District Heights, MD. James was educated in the District of Columbia and Prince Georges County public school systems. He attended Bowie State College for a brief period. James later held various jobs in the food service industry. In his latter years he worked as a Bank Teller and Youth Counselor. James was a kind, loving and giving person with a big heart who you could always depend on. He enjoyed life, sports and the Washington Football Team. James loved his family and especially his nieces and nephews.

He leaves to cherish his memories one brother, William A. Bland, three sisters, Robin Q. Harris, Alma A. Broady and Donie D. Drummond all from Washington, DC; three aunts, Quincy W. Gaines of Neeses, South Carolina, Ethel D. Whitmore of Washington, DC and Dr. Lorene K. Robinson of Dover, Delaware and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends
