“ Uncle Jim Jim I miss you so very much. Our talks whether it's late at night while you cooking or we just chilling. I still remember us cutting up and tearing the face floor up at my wedding. All the times I came to get you for cook outs. Man we be out there all night. Anytime I asked for anything you would be right there. I loved that people knew how close we were. Oh ask Wendy, she probably talked to him. Most times yup. I think we just were built from the same cloth. We just did things our way. You were missed the moment you took your last breath and will be forever. I have comfort knowing that you left our earthly family to be with our heavenly family. And I'm ok with that. I love you so very much and I'll miss you forever. Love Wendy

“ Jimmy jam aka jazzy j was his stage name. We had a band on Morris road called SE Connection. Jimmy jam put the band together he picked all the members and had all the equipment lol. We use to practice in the laundry room before going down St Teresa church to battle other bands. The cost to get in the battle was a can good. Man we use to laugh so hard Jimmy jam always had some funny jokes or funny stories to tell and don't get him started with that laugh and those concoctions he use to put together. so many memories not enough words I pray I see you again when its all said and done. Rest Easy Jimmy jam 💕 100 🙏

“ Jim Jim, I'm still trying to process your death, it's extremely hard for me to wrap my head around, me never seeing you again. Jimmy, I never cried so much, man you were my guy... 🥺 We were together our entire life, building clubhouses, putting bicycles together, climbing the trees, and the magnificent Christmas we had every year exchanging of gifts we bought at the 5 and 10 store. You knew I always had your back, no matter what, I know, we all had our separate lives, but that didn't matter to me, because every time we talked, it was love and an adventure... 😭.....Jim Jim, you lived in a time capsule, but I loved it. I'm glad we did a lot things together and been all over Maryland.

Man, I Love you, I miss you infinity, and until we are together again, kiss mamma and daddy for me, and Rest Easy.....Jim Jim,.... 🙏🥺

Your brother,
Kelvin aka 2K
