

Mr. James Woodrow Robinson, Jr.

May 23, 1957 - September 6, 2023

In Loving Memory of James Woodrow Robinson Jr.

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the peaceful passing of James Woodrow Robinson Jr., a beloved husband, member of the community, and dedicated public servant. James, born on May 23, 1957, in the heart of Washington, DC, departed from this world on September 6, 2023, leaving behind a legacy of love, compassion, and unwavering commitment to his family and his work.

James, a proud African American, grew up in the vibrant city he called home. Though he faced challenges in his education, his determination and perseverance shone through, exemplifying his resilience and strength. James dedicated his career to the service of his community, working tirelessly for the DC Government.

James' true joy in life came from spending precious moments with his beloved wife, Gail. Together, they created countless memories filled with love and support, weathering life's challenges with a united front.

In honor of the remarkable life that James led, we invite family, friends, and colleagues to pay their respects during the visitation at the Pope Funeral Home Forestville Chapel on September 15, 2023, beginning at 2:00 pm. A touching funeral service to celebrate James' life will be held at the same location at 3:00 pm.

As we mourn the loss of James, we find solace in the knowledge that his spirit will forever remain with us. Let us gather together to remember his infectious laughter, his unwavering support, and the impact he made on our lives.

In this time of profound sadness, let us lean on one another for support and find strength in the memories we hold dear. James Woodrow Robinson Jr. will forever be cherished and remembered for his love, kindness, and the indelible mark he left on our hearts. As we bid our final farewells, let us take solace in knowing that his legacy will continue to inspire generations to come.

Please join us as we celebrate the remarkable life of James Woodrow Robinson Jr. and honor his profound contributions to our lives.
