“ Yes!!! Mrs. Prue "held the line" with co-Baritones James Barnes, Anita Harris-Tyer, Walter Young and Paula Bates. "And he Blessed my Soul" "The Best is yet to Come" and all of the wonderful presentations of song from our Choir

She is gently finding her seat to commune with her fellow heavenly choir mates.

Barbara Belt, Patricia Doles, Aurelia Joel, LaCurtis "Mikki" Colmes, Anita Harris-Tyer, Giles Bragg and the other names that I may not know that have gone on to be with the Lord.

I was just driving past her street and recalled where she told me she lived.

A quiet determination to get the notes and be a part of this great gathering of people wanting to lift a voice to sing.

RIP Mrs. Janie Prue

“ Mrs. Prue was a member of the St. Joseph Gospel Choir and sang in my Baritone section. She had a strong deep voice and was a true compliment to the choir. I remember her being so dedicated to the choir and her section. She would always be on time, if not early. She'd be prepared with her bag of music, a sharpened pencil and her cassette recording device, which was a requirement. I remember the day she upgraded to a digital recording device and from that day forth, whenever she had difficulties with the digital device, she would come to me for assistance. Mrs. Prue was always kind, with a beautiful smile and determined to learn the music. I will miss her dearly and I will remember her husband patiently wanting to take her home after rehearsal. May her soul rest in peace.

“ Mrs. Prue was always so sweet. She was a faithful servant to the St. Joseph Gospel Choir and church. She will surely be missed as a choir family member. My condolences to the Prue family.

Sincerely,
Lanette Brooks
