“ Jean was a wonderful colleague and a loyal and true friend. Her warm smile, sense of humor and infectious laughter was a blessing for all who knew her. I suspect that with all the trials and tribulations in the world today, the Good Lord was in desperate need of having someone close to Him to boost His spirits and give Him a good chuckle. Who better to do this than Jean Elizabeth! I believe that is why He called her home at this time, and why her friends and family should take solace in Jean's new role as Heaven's Smiling Angel..

My mom was a beautiful, intelligent, and loving person. The Lord blessed me with 86 years as a mother, friend and a confidant. She would listen for hours at your problems and gave me so much wisdom and encouragement to be whoever I wanted to be. Professionally, I followed her footsteps as a Human Resources Specialist in Training & Development. We work at separate agencies but shared in training experiences 20 years. Jean was the best ever mother Grandma, Auntie and a friend, Loved by most! Missing you every day.
