“ To The Family of Mrs. Jennie Smith I share my deepest sympathy with you. I was in The Senior Fashion show with Mrs. Smith at the Oxon Hill Community Center, we had such a great time. Some time I would give her a ride home after rehearsal, she was a JOY to be with, her love for God and family was a great inspiration to me. Love & Thanks Margie Taylor.

“ *Michael and Jewel,
I am so sorry for your loss. I am blessed to have so many memories with your mother. Ms. Jennie was a force of loving nature. She supported me and taught me so many things that will live with me in infamy. God Bless YOU! The Cureton family is here to support you.*

“ I was so deeply saddened to hear of "Aunt" Jennie's death. She and my mother had lived their lives like-sisters for all of my life. She holds her own special place in my heart, for evermore. Parents are always at the top of the LOVED list. Losing your Mother is like the world's end. No one will replace her, but God will comfort your heart, to face the days ahead. May her soul rest in peace!

The Family's of Frances Lee, Helen Williams, Lois Anty, from South Carolina, is at a loss for words. Jennie Mae is the last of the brothers and sisters. We mourn the loss of Jennie Mae. Jennie will be missed. We could look for Jewel and Jennie and Michael during the summer months. We would love to see them. We regret because of the virus, we will not be able to travel. Hopefully when travel is open up again we can see each other. Love you all.

*To the Smith Family,
Jennie was real special to me. I met her at Iverson Mall while we were all exercising. We became good friends enough that I told her I needed her to be in the Senior Fashion show since she always looked like she just stepped out of a magazine. She did participate and was the belle of the ball. No one could believe her age. I loved Jennie and I will always remember her kind heart. RIP my Friend.*

*To the Smith Family
Sister Jennie Smith was a joy to know and love. And her light always shined God's love for all people. Her every word was always encouraging. And she uplifted all that crossed her path. Her love for Jesus Christ helped us who talked with her to understand her deepest belief in Jesus Christ. She was a true example of a disciple of Christ. And, with her words, she made you want to be honorable and live your life for Christ. I thank God for allowing me to hear her testimonies over the many years. She made you understand that the life you live, speaks for self. And her life spoke volumes. I will always keep you in my heart. Peace to the Family.*

*To the Smith Family
Jennie will definitely be missed. I will miss seeing her beautiful smile and feeling her warm embrace whenever I visited Cornerstone Community Baptist Church. May all of you find comfort and strength from the God she worshipped and served. Peace and Love,

My deepest condolences to the Smith family . When I came to Cornerstone she made me feel welcome and each Sunday she always showed her love to everyone. I also enjoyed seeing her at the Iverson Mall walking. She brought joy to so many people and I'm glad to be one of those people. Sunday want be the same without her sitting on the second row at church. I pray God grant each of you peace and comfort.

Welcome Home Mother Jennie Welcome Home ❤️❤️❤️
