“ Whewww! It took me a minute to leave my condolences. Lost my brother on August 30th and then my life long girlfriend of over 50 years on the September 14th! That was the longest 15 days of my life and I am still having difficulty grasping that the two of you are not here! This is so heart breaking but..... I know that the two of you are up there playing cards (My two spades partners..... now who is going to be my spade partner), laughing and having a great time!

To Jyrell and Jaquan - Know that I love you and I am here for you no matter what! To Ma Emma your babygirl is your angel still watching over you to make sure you are good. Eddie we are here for you as well! Jenn was loved and will be sorely missed.

“ Sincere condolences to Aunt Emma and Jennifer's entire family. May God's love comfort you during this time. Jennifer was my step cousin because my uncle was her step dad. I will always remember Jennifer for the love, compassion, and time she took up with my dad, especially after his stroke. We're sadden by this sudden loss. Love Shinnette & James.

“ To Aunt Emma, Jennifer’s sons, siblings, & entire family,

We send our sincere condolences, sympathy, and most of all prayers that God will comfort and strengthen each and everyone of your hearts now and in the future days to come.

We loved Jennifer and initially met her when she visited her mom here in NC 10 plus years ago. From that time we communicated, laughed together, went out to eat and just enjoyed times together wherever she visited her mom. Jennifer maybe gone but will never be forgotten. We cherish the memories of your overall beaming personality!

Our hearts are saddened but we know God makes no mistakes and He will strengthen your hearts...!!!

With Much Love 💕 & Continuous Prayers 🙏,
Artise & Sherba McLean & Family from NC

“ Hello. My name is Marianne McCoy and I grew up with Jennifer. Literally, I lived next door at 5720. I was floored when I heard that Jennifer had passed. I have been looking for her, and trying to get in touch with her for the last seven years or so. When I heard that she ran into our other childhood friend (T.I.) at BJ's I started my search all over again. Jennifer was really heavy on the mind and spirit the last three years. We used to be really close. I am so sorry that I couldn't reconnect with her. She was a really great friend. She was my daughter's unofficial godmother. Meaning that by the time my daughter was to be baptized, I had lost contact with Jennifer. But for the first few years, she had Lynn's back.

Ms. Sills (Johnson), my heartfelt condolences and prayers for you and the family. I pray that God will comfort your heart and spirit at such a great loss. We that knew Jennifer growing up are deeply saddened by her passing. May the peace of God console your soul.

Forever your next door neighbor. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. My mom sends her prayers and condolences as well.

“ JEN and I have been friends for over 30 years, our boys grew up as cousins and still friends to this day. 9/14 is my birthday my dear sister passed I loved her, we made it a point to reach out and talk. We didn't have to talk to each other every day we always picked up like we just talked yesterday. She was a good person and she loved my son like he was her own child and I can't thank her enough for that. I will miss you dear friend RIH!
