“ Having known Jesse was my blessing from God. Watching him never surrender in his battle over the years gave me a view of the courage and strength that only God could have instilled in him. He fought until it was time to take his leave from his ravished body as God's called his name and his soul slipped from this earthly place to his forever home. His smile and boyish charm will be missed among the family as another empty seat will be prominent anytime we gather together under the family banner. God speed my cousin and chosen angel. I love you. Say hello and take our love to those who were at the gate to welcome you.

“ My sincere condolences to Jesse's family. Memories are important to reflect upon... "Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow".

“ I will always remember Jesse's inner strength and how he pushed to make the family reunions. There is nothing like family and there is pain and void when one of us leaves. Prayers to the family for God's comfort and peace. Love to all. Reggie and Anita Farrish.
