“ To the Brown Family and friends, just know that you are not alone. Our hearts 💕condolences 🌸 & heartfelt fervent prayers 🙏 are with you, in this time of grief. It's not easy losing someone so dear to your heart. Know that Joann will be missed. She always welcome me into her home. I remember years ago when I just received my drivers license, she would only let me drive her car; when, LaShaun & I with a few others went to Hines Point Park in DC. Later, as time passed we grew up & I left Maryland, every time I would visit Maryland & wanted some food from New China Carryout and/ or Johnny Boys and we will always check in to see how she was doing. No matter how busy she was or how crowded the store would get her face would light up and that smile, I remember it well. She would always take time out to talk & laugh with us; also, to tell us/ brag about how well Vida & Betty & little Bubbles was doing. Since, she left Johnny Boys it has not been the same for me. Sincerely, The GIBSON FAMILY (Joe & Sabrina & Family) BLESSINGS 🕊️🥰💕 “ALWAYS”
