

Ms. Joann Washington

July 14, 1948 - December 6, 2023

Joann Hines Washington was born on July 14, 1948 to Geraldine Johnson and the late Clyde Dell Hines. Joann was married to the late Reginald Washington, from this union birthed 4 boys, separated in 1967. In 1968, she met Clarence Cannon in New York City where he became "Pops" to her 4 boys and from this union came her baby boy.

Joann used to love to play the numbers. She worked for a number of years as a cafeteria lady in New York Public Schools. She also worked in Washington, DC at the Accounting Building as a housekeeper.

On December 5, 2023 gathered her things she wanted to be used in her Celebration of Life.

She laid these things on the corner of her desk and asked her health care aid to tell her children goodbye and she love them. December 6th during the early morning hours she took a seat on the Glory Train and rode nonstop to Glory Land.

Joann leaves to mourn mother Geraldine Johnson; 4 sons - Reginald Washington, Danny Washington, Donnell Washington and Delton Washington; 3 sisters - Arzella Smith (William), Mabelean Porter (Van), Ventsene McKoy; 1 uncle - James Earl Strong; 1 aunt Deloris Martin.

Joann was preceded in death by son Gelando Washington; 4 brothers - James R McKoy, Sylvestor McKoy, Ronald J. Hines, Wilton E. Hines Sr.; 1 sister - Celestine (Peggy) Hardy. Host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends. Special friends Gean Simmons and Kay Hicks
