J.R. was one of my favrotie people to work with at the John A. Wilson Building. His humor, professionalism and kindness made it so easy to work with him. With his 40 years of service to the District of Columbia, I know that J.R. will be missed by so many. Thank you for your service, J.R.! Job well done!

“ To the Williams Family - We send our deepest condolences. John and my husband Phillip spoke many times and our daughters were fond of "Uncle John" and the neighborhood just seems so much more empty without John rolling by. May you find comfort and peace in these sad times.
