

Mr. Johnnie Mack Allen

November 8, 1933 - November 24, 2023

Johnnie Mack Allen (Pop) was born November 16, 1933 to the late Johnnie Allen and Emma Sweet in Nash County North Carolina. Johnnie was the youngest of three children. His sisters, Ruth Grant and Beatrice Walker preceded him in death. Johnnie was nicknamed "Honey" by his beloved mother and sisters. Johnnie transitioned to his heavenly home on November 24, 2023, reaching his most recent goal to obtain the age of 90.

Johnnie attended public school in Nash County, NC and attended Swift Creek High School. Johnnie served honorably in the US Army and Army Reserve from July, 1954 to July, 1962. He served at the Artillery and Guided Missile Center in Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Johnnie received the National Defense Service Medal and Good Conduct Medal.

He worked for the federal government from 1962 to 1985 and retired from the Small Business Administration. Johnnie was an entrepreneur and operated a commercial cleaning service until 2013 and then enjoyed full retirement.

Johnnie enjoyed his retirement and was grateful for the support of his eldest son, Johnnie Mack, Jr. for his assistance in his twilight years.

Johnnie leaves to cherish his memories his four sons from a first marriage; Johnnie (Bonnie), Joseph (Patricia), Jeffery (Angela) Jamille (Ronda) and a daughter from his second marriage; Shadonna (Nate). Grandchildren: Shaefel (Lekisha), Clinton, Jonita (Carlos), Tiffany, Jeffery Benjamin, Quinton (Deceased), Theodosia, Taylor, Jeffery, Jr, Joanne, and Breonna; Great grandchildren: Raphael, Makai, Mackenzie, Myles, Carmen, Camren, Tia and

Braylee; along with a host of other relatives and close friends
