“ One of my first memories is when I was a young girl (a pre teen) I was outside playing in the front yard. He came over to see his brother my father & his sister Mattie who lived next door. He walked up the walk way & I was in awe. I was so mesmerised because he looked just like my father! He introduced himself as my uncle Jonah! My heart still flutters as I write the post as eyes begin to water. He invited me to his house. Shortly thereafter after I began spinning weekends with my cousins Niece & Glenda.

I loved spinning time with the whole family. I will never forget that day in my front yard & I am forever grateful to have had the pleasure to get to know him as time progressed.
