“ Joe Ashton was a good and close friend of my Dad, Henry 'Hank' Edwards (dec) at OLQP for many years. The two of them were a staple of a subset of men who diligently ran the Men's Club there. I recall most their enduring friendship which I realized years later had a positive impact on me. Friendship is one of things I hold dearest. It came from them. I'm so very sorry to hear of his passing. I offer sincere condolences and sympathy to the Ashton Family. I pray God's peace and comfort over them.
