Joseph was an active member of the Mecca Temple #10, where he was a participant on the drill team and competed in annual national competitions. He joined Friendship Baptist Church and attended for over 50 years, serving on the usher board and maintenance team.

“ Hey Cobs,
Why, why, why, you know we had to look out for each other. But GOD knows best not to let you suffer and in pain any longer. GOD saw the road was getting rough, he gently closed your loving eyes and whispered Peace be thine. The sleepless nights are passed. Your ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.

Love,
“Spunk” Sister Earlene.
