

JOSHUA LAMAR BENNETT ABRAMS

December 25, 1992 - October 3, 2024

His Journey

Joshua Lamar Bennett Abrams, was born on December 25, 1992, at Prince George's Hospital in Cheverly Maryland to George Lloyd Abrams and the late Juanita Elizabeth Bennett. He departed this earthly life on October 3, 2024, at Luminis Health Doctors Community Medical Center.

From Joshua's birth and throughout his life he experienced health issues and challenges with kidney disease. His father Llyod gave him one of his kidneys when Joshua was a young child. Despite his health challenges Joshua embraced life fully and enthusiastically. He enjoyed spending time with family and friends. He was affectionately known by many people as "JoSway."

He was raised in Prince George's County, Maryland by his late grandmother Betty Lou Bennett, Aunt/Mommy Victoria, cousin/sister Ashlee Nicole and father. Joshua graduated from Fairmont Heights High School in 2011. After he attended a Junior College focusing on Business. His life passion was high fashion and based his career in the fashion district.

He loved making a grand entrance wearing "Burberry clothing" with the best of the best colognes. Everyone that knew Joshua knew red was his favorite color; that color expressed his explosive confidence, and fiery attitude. His friends recognized him for his warmth, sensitivity, and fun personality.

Joshua is survived by his father George Lloyd Abrams, and Aunt/Mommy Victoria Ashton, grandparents George and Clarise Abrams; two sisters Jovonnie Bennett & Jasmine Watkins; two nephews Khyrin and Cane; one special cousin/sister Ashlee and a host of Aunts, Uncles, cousins, and friends. Two special friends Sydney Hare and Destiny Carter.
