Joe, while you can't read this now I have to unburden my heart. I'm SO glad we re-connected last year and that the Lord saw fit for you to share your Mom and Thea's telephone info. You are an incredible cousin who has had an incredible journey! There are so many things we didn't get to talk about, but those that we did were necessary and powerful. You are/were loved and led an unimaginable journey to help and serve others. I hope you can share an invisible hug with your baby sister Debbie to remind her that she TOO is an awesome being! Same with your Mom and Pops!

My tears don't work well with contact lenses, so guess I have to cut it off here. Looking forward to our Heavenly reunion!

“ TO MY OLDEST FRIEND FROM GRADE SCHOOL, THROUGH THE MILITARY, AS WELL AS THE HEART-REPLACED ZIPPER CLUB AND LIFE BEYOND, THAT YOU FIND PEACE ETERNAL AND NO MORE PAIN!

THE JOY OF YOUR HEART, AS WELL AS YOUR SMILE, AND THE WHITS OF YOUR MINDSET, WILL ALWAYS BE MISSED IN OUR DAILY UPLIFTING EMAILS, OUR CONVERSATIONS AND EXPERIENCES OF OUR 55+ YEARS TOGETHER OF GROWTH AS DISABLED VETERANS-

WE ALWAYS STAND TALL WITH HONOR, DIGNITY, AND RESPECT TO THE END.

BLESS YOU, MY ETERNAL FRIEND-PEACE BE STILL!

“ I’m truly sorry for your loss. Losing someone dear to us is never easy, and during this difficult time, it’s important to remember the moments you shared, the love you felt, and the impact they had on your life. May you find comfort in the memories and the support of those around you. My deepest condolences to you and your family.
