“ My Aunt was so fly when I was a little girl. She introduced my sister & i to Garfinkels & Woodies . She was responsible for buying our book bags & school shoes every year. An Auntie is a special title & she wore it AMAZINGLY. The car rides to the parks , letting us ride in the "hatchback" & play in all her fancy clothes & perfumes. She is truly missed

“ I remember when Joyce had her apartment on 42nd Street, NE and she Annette and I would get up in the morning. Annette and myself had spent a night and Joyce would always prepare breakfast for us. I believe she was the first one to introduce me to chicken and pancakes/waffles and it was so good. She was a wonderful host and always made me feel welcomed. Those were definitely the good ole days. Joyce will truly be missed.

Oh my goodness, I loved spending the night at her apartment. She told us that "New Yorkers" ate chicken & waffles & it was fancy to eat. She most definitely was a great hostess
