“ I can say without a doubt...Keith was one of the GOOD GUYS! We balled together, we hung out and he touched everyone he came to know in a positive way because...that's who he was. I've lost a dear friend and the world has lost a shining light. Condolences to the family and all those who knew him as I did. Rest in Peace my Brother. Ernest M. Lewis

“ I remember a time when the Howard University students opened up a wing place. They claimed to have the hottest wings ever and they challenged people. Well, Keith took the challenge. He said the wings can't be that hot. He ordered the hottest ones from the menu. They were called Atomic something. It was Keith, Diane and myself. We went down to the Post cafeteria. Keith took one bite of the wing and immediately his eyes turned bloodshot red, tears were streaming down his face and he was gasping for air and grasping for water. Diane and I were crying from laughing. Then all of a sudden, steam starting rising from the top of his head. Diane and I were no more good after that. We never let him hear the end of it.

“ Keith was always a "cheery & funny" guy. I just remember all the time we shared when we were young, growing up and attending the same schools. Blaine St Ne was a great neighborhood and friends that we made still come together in the Summer. Keith's last appearance at the BSN picnic was memorable because we hadn't seen him in such a long time. He was "showered" with hugs and kisses. We'll never let the memories die, you were a great friend....RIHP

“ Keith was like a brother to me , we had been friends since elementary school. We were together so much people often thought we were brother's. It is with a heavy heart that I see him go, but happy that all his pain is gone . I will miss him until I see him again some future day. My sympathy to Christine and all his family . In loving memory Chucky

“ I met Keith when I'd returned home from traveling to discover, at the airport, that I'd lost my house keys. After making several calls and being unsuccessful in finding someone to let me in, I called Gloria and Keith. They let me stay in their house. Keith was welcoming and a gracious host. Thank you, Keith. Keeping your family close in my heart.
