“ I would like to give my deepest sympathies to the family of Kermit Pullum. I understand that this is a difficult time right now, but I would like to leave the family with some words of comfort. These words are found at 2 Corinthians 1: 3,4. It says "Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God." So we see that God understand the loss that you are feeling and is here to provide comfort for you. Also know that God is going to continue to provide you with comfort, until the time when "death will be no more..." (Revelation 21; 3,4) and he again reunite us with those we have loss in death.(John 5:28,29)

“ To the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I extend to you my deepest condolences. Jehovah God's word the Bible tells us to "Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, and he himself will sustain you." Psalm 55:22

“ Please accept my deepest and heartfelt condolences for your dear loved one. Death is such an unnatural sting, that takes a toll on the entire family. Fortunately, we have God's Word---the Bible--- to give us the needed encouragement, during our bereavement period. I hope the following scriptures prove to be a source of comfort: Isaiah 25:8; John 5:28,29; 2 Cor 1:3 and Revelation 21:4. May the God of all comfort and tender mercies be with the entire family, during this most difficult time!

Best Regards,
