“ Kevin will & always be the best big brother ever. I couldn't have asked for a better one. I always will love him. I have so many great memories with him that would take days to share, but I look forward to reminiscing about them again one day soon with him. See you in paradise bruh bro.

“ Kevin, "Moose", was such a kind, generous young man. He was always polite when he came to visit and he did love my grandson, his son KJ, so very much. Even more, his son loved him. I remember whenever I would drop him off to Kevin, KJ would be trying to hurry up and get out of the car seat, as he kept pointing and saying Da Da. He was a great father and anytime his son needed anything, he was right there with it. I will miss him so much because I felt like he was part of my family. He was always respectful and he loved my daughter Gerri very much. He had a deep love for his family, especially his mom, dad and his sister. I will always remember him, and we will keep his memory alive for his son, KJ. Kevin, you will always be in our hearts, and we all love you.

“ I met Kevin when I was volunteering as a parent aide for Ms. Johnson's 4th grade class my daughter was also in her class. Kevin's smile even back then was so genuine. After not seeing him for a while until he became a man that smile was still quite noticeable. However what was more heartwarming was he remembered my name. Kevin was truly a well mannered young man. I gave him a ride one day from work and he shared pictures of his son with me. I could tell just from us talking that he loved his son and was a good father. Rest in Paradise Kevin.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: "Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

We're witnesses so we're very familiar with those scriptures, but thank you for the reminder.
