To: The Deskins & Williams Family

From: Jerome C. Simmons & Family

When we grieve the loss of someone we love, the family can be like a large oak tree amid the barren landscape of sorrow. Branches of a tree offer shelter from the storm, and we want to be a place of refuge in your time of need.

My heartfelt thoughts are with you and your family as you pass through this time of sorrow. The loss of your beloved Kim Donnatte Deskins-Williams lost loved one is a sorrowful loss for you all. Please know that you are in my thoughts, and I wish you and your family all the comfort you need during this difficult time.

May the love and the beauty of "Kim's" life be the sunshine in your darkness. May you find comfort and warmth from those closest to you. You are in my constant thoughts during these difficult days.

The loss of a loved one is such a hard road to travel, and you have my deepest sympathy.

Love Y'all

Mr. Jerome & Shountell Simmons & Family

“ She is bigger than life and I had the privilege and honor to live 23 years with her and to learn her soul and heart. God made only one Kim. My life partner. I will miss her touch, her smile, her humor and how she loved to talk and made me listen. You are not alone, I am here with you and you are forever here with me.

“ My God-Mother had a "HEART OF GOLD". Her love was true and PURE!! When she gave, she gave unselfishly. You hear me? Let me to repeat myself... She gave UN-SEL-FISH-LY!!! My God-Mother stood the test of times for MANY and expected NOTHING in return. She sacrificed for others without hesitation (including myself and didn't give a damn what anyone had to say about it) I was her DEAR GOD-DAUGHTER and Lord knows she was my DEAR GOD-MOTHER💕

A Heart of Gold has stop beating. Two Willing Hands at Rest.

I love you pass the moon and miss you beyond the stars My Beloved.~Kisha😭💔
