“I am saddened to hear of Mr. Cole 's passing. He was a kind and gentle man. I am thankful for your love one's kindness and thoughtfulness toward the elderly in the building. The opening of the door and carrying of groceries bags. It was so refreshing to see a gentleman in this day and time still showing respect for the elderly and people in general. Though he wasn't always feeling his best he always managed to smile and say hello. May the Lord comfort and give your family peace at this time.”
