Larry's Mother Ms Alice and my Mom Louise Cagle were good friends. My father Ernest lived a while with his relatives in DC. Larry was our childhood friend always smiling and never a bully. I remember Larry playing with me and my Sister and Brothers as young kids. I attended school with him. We lived then in MacDougal Terrace in Durham NC until his family moved. Didn't see Larry much. I left Durham since 1974 joined the Military. I remember Mr D , Thomasina and Howard too. To Larry's Family and Howard my Condolences. RIH Larry. From the Cagle Family.
