“ *To the Crenshaw Family:
There are not enough words of comfort in any language for you now. I know that, however, I must write. You must not grieve, LaTosha is a Crenshaw and I believe within my heart that she would not want you to grieve; however, I think she would be happy if we celebrated her life's journey and keep her hopes and dreams alive.
Also, I hope you can find comfort in the many friends and extended family who are thinking of you today, who love you and share your grief.*

With love and heartfelt sympathy,

“ Tosha and I worked together with Denise. I enjoyed her sense of humor, she made me laugh!! Quiet voice, small smile and good natured.

Getting her work completed was her first priority and a quick game of online solitaire when she could fit it in.

She and Denise would carry on a typical mother daughter conversation during the work day. She was part of working, a piece of a puzzle, and she fit so well. I miss her.

My husband did not know her personally, but he was saddened by her passing. Our love to Denise, Keith and all her family.
