

Mr. Leon Darryl Jones

March 30, 1947 - September 6, 2021

Leon D. Jones was born on March 30, 1947 in Washington, D.C. to the late Robert and Ruth Jones. He grew up on Acker Street in northeast D.C. where he attended the D.C. public school system. He worked for the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority for nearly 30 years and retired in 2008.

To know Leon was to love him. He was a very devoted, caring and loving husband and father - always smiling and blinking. Leon was a very giving person. He never hesitated to help anyone with anything. He was a very wise individual who loved the Lord and could often be heard discussing the Bible with friends and family. He always spoke his mind. He wouldn't hesitate to tell you what he thought about anything whether you agreed or not.

Leon is preceded in death by his father, Robert (Big Bobby); mother (Ruth); oldest son (Leon); Sisters: Joann, Loretta and Lauretha; Brothers: Clyde, Samuel (Sammy), Larry, Tyrone, and Irvin (Fella). He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Francine; Daughter: LaTanya Jones; Sons: Aaron Jones (daughter-in-law Nicole Jones), Leon Jones, Jr. (Little Leon), Jacob Jones, and Joshua Jones; Grand Children: Darius Price, Marquiete Jones, Bishop Jones, Micah Jones, Aaron Jones, Jr., Noel Jones, and Alani Jones; Great Grand Children; Isaiah Baptist and Madisyn Hall-Jones; Brother: Robert (Bobby) Jones; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ Uncle Leon,
I am going to miss your stories, your advice. You consistently showed up not just for your children, but for their cousins as well. You were what every uncle aspires to be. I will truly miss you. Rest in Peace.

“ Daddy,
You are the very first man that I've fallen in love with. You are the example of what I look for in a man. You molded me, guided me, and raised me to be the woman I am today. I miss you like crazy. You were too sexy for your shirt, but not too sexy for heaven. 🥰❤️
