“ The service at Union Temple Baptist Church was beautiful. I watch it on Facebook. My memories of Poosie (Poo Baby as I called him) are from our early years as little children. His father and my mother were first cousins on the Campbell side of the family. The last time I saw him was at my brother's funeral (Walter Johnson Jr.). His infectious smile will surely be missed. I was always happy to see my cousins.

I love my cousin, my friend, as we are the same age. I looked up to him. We did a lot of things together, and I do appreciate it appreciate meeting his daughter. I knew the oldest daughter loved his wife. 💕🕶️
