

Mr. Leroy Noble Harrison

January 4, 1943 - October 3, 2025

Leroy Noble Harrison was born on January 4, 1943, in Washington, DC to the late Clarence Harrison and Genevieve Noble. He attended public schools in the Washington, DC area. Leroy transitioned on Friday, October 3, 2025, from medical complications.

Leroy met and married the love of his life, Anna Chisolum on April 12, 1966. To their 59-year union, one wonderful son was born, Andre D. Harrison.

Leroy had a fulfilling career, working for Victory Van lines, Time Life Books as a book store manager, and later at Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission. Leroy was kind, generous, and a true friend to many. He had a passion for restoring classic cars.

To cherish his memories, Leroy leaves behind a legacy of love and dedication. He is survived by his heart and soul, beloved wife Anna; Andre, the best son a father could ever have, daughter-in-law Emma (the daughter I never had), and his precious granddaughter Kaitlyn. Sisters-in-law: Edna, Linda, Roxanne, and Selena (McCarthy); Brothers-in-law: Henry Young (Mary), Reuben (Sandra), Clyde, Henry Chisholm, Anthony (Dianne[AH1]), and Matthew; Nieces: Felicia, Demetrius, Genesis, Katrina, Shelena, MacKayla and Aaliyah; Nephews: Clarence, Charles, Carl Jr, Antonio, Anthony Jr., Solly, Amari, S'Ven, Kyne; and a host of other relatives and close friends who will always remember his kindness and warmth

“ Anna and family, we're so saddened to hear about Leroy's transition. This pic of him is so telling, as we remember him as always being joyous with a huge smile and a joke. Praying for some peace and comfort for you all in the many memories .
Love you, Aunt Rosa Lee and Lynn

“ To my family Anna and Andre, our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of loss. It is not a easy task. Leroy will be truly missed and forever in our hearts. Rest well big guy.. We love you but God loves you best. Please take care of my dad who would have thought that you both would have been called home this year.

Anna, Andre and Family, Beyond the Heavenly Gate, there is an open road where we must travel alone. Beyond the Heavenly Gate “Le” has found happiness from his illness, no more pain only happiness. At a time like this, there isn’t much anyone can say. I know, my son Richard has welcomed “Le” to his Heavenly home. Remember beyond the Gate there is only the everlasting happiness of God. Rest “Le” until we meet again. Blessings, Patricia Rice Johnson, Neighbor
