“ Levill is my last living sibling and as much as that hurts, I am so thankful we had this past year and a half together. It is has been such a joy to spend time with him and my sister, Delores before she transitioned home January 1st. So I thank God for this marvelous reunion and fellowship. I love you Benny. Your brother, Gerald

We send our heartfelt condolences to Our Last Uncle. And Levell's Family We are going to cover yall. We know this year was a tough year. We lost a matriarch and your sister. We will miss Uncle Levell. And precious gem. So laid-back and chill. It's is so important to love on your ppl. Treasure them. Losing a aunt and uncle in the same year hit different. It's painful but God don't make no mistakes. See you morning Uncle Levell. We love you and we going to miss you
