“ Mrs. Carter was my next-door neighbor on 25th Street in Shipley Terrace for 50 years. She and my mother became good neighbor friends over the years. I remember when Mrs. Carter was a guest at my mom's birthday celebration a few years ago at the nursing home in Leonardtown, MD. My mom has dementia. Despite the dis-ease, my mom knew and called out Mrs. Carter's name. What a blessing to see both of them full of love, joy and admiration for each other.

I would often call Mrs. Carter (I love hearing her soft-spoken voice). She and I both watched General Hospital. We enjoyed comparing our thoughts on the characters and the story lines.

Enjoy your new eternal home with your Creator, your relatives and neighbors (Bryants, Yarboroughs, et al). Now, we have an ancestral angel to watch over us.

Thank you Father for creating and allowing us to experience life with Mrs. Lillie Carter!

“ My prayers and thoughts go out to the family during their time of bereavement. I never got to meet Ms. Carter but her love shined on in her granddaughter, Tramell. I know that Ms. Carter will truly be missed.

“ I have known Ms. Carter for about 50 years but it was not until my niece and nephew’s mother passed who was my eldest sister, that I became very close to her, and would visit her frequently at her home in DC. When she got too old to live alone and moved to Maryland, I would call her every week at least twice. If she did not hear from me, she always asked someone who knew me if I was all right. I know that she knew I loved her and that she loved me. Because I would end each call saying I love you and she would say the same to me. Up until the week, she passed. I thank God for placing her in my life and I will miss her, but I will always have her in my heart. Sincerely, Althea D. McCombs
