“ To Lil's Family,

May it help you to know that I share in your loss and I extend my deepest sympathy. Lil and I go back many, many years. We attended the same church for several years and when I relocated I lost contact with her. The years that we did spend together, I have fond memories. She was truly a good woman and cared about her family.

God Bless you.

“ So very sorry about the passing of your beloved Lillie and my good friend. Lillie, Maria (Holmes) Wilson and I came to DC together in 1965 to attend Cortez Peters Business College. Those were the good ole days and we had a good time together. Lillie liked to have fun and she was a lot of fun. She was a beautiful, caring, passionate, kind and generous person who would do anything in the world for you if she could. She will be truly missed. Rest in Peace my dear friend Lil!
