“ My deepest condolences to the family and friends. The blood of Jesus Christ paid the ultimate sacrifice for all mankind. In bible times we can really appreciate how Jesus demonstrated his love for mankind when he resurrected Lazarus, Jairus daughter, and the widow's son. John 5:28-29: Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment. While we await this grand prophecy to be fulfilled bringing mankind happiness in seeing their loved ones again let the Father of tender mercies comfort you and your family. 2 Cor 1:3,4.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Brock family. I knew Mr. Linwood, his parents and his many siblings growing up in Culpeper. His parents and my grandparents, William and Annie Lovell were such great friends - around the corner from each other's house in the same neighborhood - such good times of days gone by. My mother, Annette, grew up with the Brock family. Always remember his beautiful smile, gracious manner and delightful presence. Keep the many sweet and everlasting memories very close to your hearts as Mr. Linwood will always be with each of you. God Bless.
Lovingly, Angela Jeffers Chapman, Culpeper, VA

“ Linwood will be missed. The Brock family and the Washington family grew up together here in Culpeper, Va. Coming from a large family... for every Brock there was a Washington buddy. We have lost so may, but the children will keep the memories alive.
