“ Lisa and I attended Immaculate Conception Academy together. She was always nice to me, ready with a smile and kind words. She even encouraged me to try out for the basketball team, all 4'10" of me (at the time)! I tried out, was not successful, but I was okay with it because I went for it like Lisa encouraged me to do. I will always remember Lisa for her beautiful smile, laugh, kinds words, and encouragement. Rest in peace, my ICA sister! Eternal memory!

“ Lisa, The Love of Travis' life.

He loved her

He adored her

He admired her

He treasured her

He respected her

He trusted her

He believed in her

He honored her

He would have laid down his life for her.

But God saw fit that it was time for her to come on home. To walk on those golden street with God. To scroll in the meadow and feel the cool breeze. To say no more pain. Just peace and joy. And to send back a message to Travis, that I am watching over you and will be with you always.

I know you through your sister, Jean, my BFF and Boss from GUH. Jean has shared with me the unforgettable memories you and your family have shared: having fun on your trips, getting lucky in the 🎰 casino and remodeling your place in DC, as well as, you being sick and her constant concern of you not wanting to eat. But when I first met you in the hospital, with your contagious and beautiful smile, I felt that you were my long, lost friend whom I hadn't seen in years .. I really felt your warmness and love...

Your sister, Jean is a golden friend to me and your family ... Now, you are in better place with your Dad and Mom celebrating eternal life...My deepest sympathy to all your love ones! Rest in God's eternal peace, Lisa.

Fiercely protective; Secretly a pushover, full of unconditional love, that's who you are to me. Co-mom to my kids; Ride or die for me. It goes both ways—I will always be your ride or die. No way to ever get me to stop talking to you and no way to end this unbreakable bond. It's Jean and Lisa forever.
