“ RIP Grandpa.... I love and miss you dearly... Gonna miss the talks, the rides, seeing you working the yard, being around you, the handshakes, the hugs, you watching us play the game, being in the yard and you giving me advice, helping me fix my car... Your presence has always been felt, will always be remembered, never be felt and never be forgotten 🥺💔🕊️

“ To Momma Brooks, Tia, Anthony, Angie, Terry, Grands and Great-grands, I send my heartfelt condolences. When I think of the Brooks, I think of the Huxtables. Mr.Brooks and Momma Brooks interactions would have you laughing, the love they had for each other was one-of-a-kind. The hospitality was out of this world. Although, I hadn't seen Mr.Brooks before his passing, I always treasure the fond father-figure memories. He was a pillar to the children of Benning Park that had the opportunity to be around him. Mr.Brooks you will truly be missed! Rest On. God bless 🙏❤️
