

Mr. Lombardo Antonio Cordova

November 22, 1951 - April 27, 2025

It is with a blend of sorrow and joyous remembrance that we announce the passing of Lombardo Antonio Cordova, who left us on April 27, 2025, at the age of 73. Born on November 22, 1951, Lombardo embraced life with the spirit of an adventurer, a loving husband, a dedicated father, and a respected engineer. With roots of El Salvador, he found his home in Fort Washington, Maryland, where he lived a life rich with love, family, and accomplishments.

Lombardo was a proud member of the engineering community, contributing to numerous projects in the private sector and leaving a lasting impact on those around him. His passion for his work mirrored his love for his family—the foundation of his joy. He is survived by his beloved wife, Maria Cordova; his devoted mother, Teresa Cordova; and his cherished son, Marvin Cordova. Each of them carries forward his legacy of kindness, integrity, and dedication.

Family and friends are invited to celebrate Lombardo's life and achievements during the forthcoming services. A wake in his honor will take place on May 2, 2025, at the Pope Event Center at 6:00 PM until 11:45pm where stories, laughter, and love will flow as we remember the cherished moments shared with him.

Lombardo will be laid to rest on May 3, 2025, at 12:00 PM, at the burial site located at 1300 Bladensburg Rd, Washington, DC 20002. It is a time for reflection, gratitude, and celebration of a life well-lived.

Let us gather to honor a remarkable man who brought joy and love to every person he encountered. Lombardo Antonio Cordova's legacy will forever remain in our hearts.
