“ Each trip to our house in Atlanta made by Louis and Paulette was always fun and memorable! My late husband Julius, went to Monroe along with Louis.

Julius was best man in Louis and Paulette's wedding. After meeting them both it was on.....we became lifelong friends!

Couples getting together sharing life's good moments!

All the crab meals and recipes coming from Louis, I still fondly remember to this day. And all my sporty eyewear, coming from my out of state, Optician, Louis!

Get your Rest Louis, you will be missed, however, never forgotten! May God hold you tight in His arms dear Paulette! You are so loved!

“ Louis and my husband Eric were best friends, Louis became God Father to my daughter Erica in 1990. My fondest memory of Louis was Thanksgiving, when we all got together at my house to watch the Redskins and Dallas. Paulette and I was for Dallas and Louis and Erica was for the Skins and Erica was for both. We laugh, argued and had so much fun. After the game we talked , took photos and said our good buys with hugs and love. Uncle Louis was loved by my family, he will be missed. Anita Jackson

“ My deepest condolences to Paulette and the family. Louis was like a big brother to me in my younger days. He had a big smile and lots of jokes. His dad's second marriage was to my oldest sister, Gladys C. Thomas, and a phenomenal young woman today was conceived, Sonja Thomas Devine. We shared many memories, visits, conversations, and lots of fun around the dinner tables. Rest in Peace my brother; we love you, but our Lord and Savior loved you best. 🙏🙏🙏❤️
