“ Warm condolences to the family of Lula Mae Scott, for the loss of their beloved Matriarch. I'd known Mrs. Scott since I was a child in DC's River Terrace Community in N.E. She was a strong, beautiful, hard working and gracious lady who was tirelessly and sincerely devoted to her family. I had the pleasure of being in her company less than two weeks before her passing. When I asked her as she lay in her Nursing home bed, how she was doing she said in a,garbled voice, "Not good", then she looked straight into my eyes and flashing a little smile, she then said "But I'm still here" and chuckled softly. I than sang "This Little Light of Mine" to her and as I encouraged her to sing along, I felt a small lump in my heart as she faintly sang a couple of words to the tune and smiled again. Lula Mae Scott at 106 was strong, determined, and an elegant lady till the end. Strength, tenacity, determination, beauty, elegance, a wonderful solid character, an appreciated timely, sense of humor, a culinary mistress of down home cuisine, kindness...what a magnificent legacy she leaves behind for all to aspire to emulate. #RIPbeautifulQueen I'll miss you dearly, Stephanie Early Abney and family
