

LYNWOOD EUGENE CAMPBELL

September 28, 1957 - July 5, 2025

Lynwood Eugene Campbell was born on September 28, 1957, in Charleston, SC to the late Robert and Naomi Campbell. He departed this life at his home in College Park, MD on Saturday, July 5, 2025. He spent his formative years in Washington D.C, where he matriculated through the Catholic school system. Lynwood graduated from St. Anthony's High School in 1975.

After graduation, Lynwood attended Morgan State University for one year. He often reminisced about his days attending Morgan State and hanging out with his Baltimore, MD cousins. He later enrolled in Lincoln Technical School and received various certifications for HVAC. Lynwood enjoyed the profession he chose and often analyzed and diagnosed any problem that you may have had with your heat or air conditioning system. He later obtained an engineering job at Hillwood Museum and Garden in Washington D.C. and eventually was promoted to manager. Lynwood was employed there until he retired in 2017. He enjoyed spending time with his siblings, James, Alfred, Vernon, Naomi, and Robin and his nephew, Darnell, who preceded him in death. He often attended family events, especially barbecues, where he was affectionately known as "Sleep and Eat." over the years, Lynwood enjoyed traveling with his brothers and cousin on their many "Man Trip's"

Lynwood Eugene Campbell leaves to cherish his memories his son, Samuel Blalock (his pride and joy); siblings, Marcia Campbell-Jones of Ft.

Washington, MD, Cleopatra "Sherry" Caldwell of Michigan; Naomi of Washington, D.C., James (Garcia) of Washington, D.C., Alfred (Lisa) of Ft. Washington, MD, and Vernon of Washington, D.C.; and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews from Washington, D.C. Virginia, and Maryland. Also, his former spouse, Mary Johnson; stepson, Robert Johnson; Michelle Blalock; and her daughter, Nola Brooks.

He was preceded in death by his siblings, Robin Nelson, Robert "Bobby" Campbell Jr., Leanord Campbell, Inza Howard, and Bunny Campbell.
