“ Brenda and I met in Kindergarten at Bryan Elementary School in 1955 when segregation of the schools was mandated. We grew up in the same neighborhood and attended parochial school through elementary and High School where we met up again at St. Cecilia's Academy. We have been a part of each other's lives ever since. I will miss my best sister/girlfriend. Will keep the family in prayer and positive thoughts. ”

“ You were the most thoughtful and giving person I know. Always willing to give a hand and advice only when ask. I was blessed beyond measure to have you as a mother in law and I will forever cherish the woman you were. Rest easy Queen as we will cherish you while you take your heavenly seat. With a tearful heart, Erika ”
